Descendants of Edmund Wyatt

First Generation

1. Edmund Wyatt was born before 1653 in England and died before July 25, 1688 in Westmoreland County, Virginia.

Possible Origins

Mar. 6, 1681: "Servants transported in the shipp Katherine of Biddiford by Christopher Browning, Master of said shipp in year of 1676:" [List includes "Edmond Wyatt"]. (Maryland State Archives early settlers database: Wyatt, Edmond; WC4:140 Film No:SR 8264. Transported in 1676. MSA SC 4341-7741)

The name Edmund Wyatt is very rare and the time period seems to line up well. It does create a dilemma, since Edmund Wyatt of Virginia bought land in 1673 and Edmund Wyatt of Maryland was a "servant" in 1676. It is possible that Wyatt completed his indenture by 1673 and returned to England to find a wife as many emancipated servants did in the 17th century, returning via Maryland in 1676 as a headright. They could also be different Edmund Wyatts, but if so it seems the Maryland one must have died quickly or gone back to England, as there seems to be no other record of an Edmund Wyatt in Maryland.

Edmund Wyatt of Westmoreland County may have been a brother of John Wyatt of Westmoreland (born 1637 by deposition; transported 1670 by grantees in Westmoreland; still living in 1700) and Richard Wyatt (transported to Virginia c.1663; petitioned old and infirm, 1712 Westmoreland County court; still living in 1716.)

These men could have been from the Chigwell, Essex Wyatts, though the evidence isn't strong.

Children of John Wyatt of Chigwell, Essex, England:

John Wyatt, christened Sep. 15, 1630
Elizabeth Wyatt, christened Mar. 9, 1636 (died June 3, 1638)
Robert Wyatt, christened Apr. 14, 1639
Richard Wyatt, christened Apr. 1, 1641 (married Apr. 3, 1666)
Sarah Wyatt, christened Mar. 30, 1643
Edmund Wyatt, christened Dec. 26, 1645

William married Martha. Martha died after June 24, 1724 of Westmoreland County, Virginia.

Book 1721-1731, p. 364
MARTHA WYATT, relict of WILLIAM, married Robert Church, who comes into court and gives Owen Brinson and Peter Walker, counter securities. Thomas Chilton and William Covey, former securities for MARTHA WYATT, ask to be released.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 11 M i. Vincent Wyatt was born before November 13, 1713 in Westmoreland County, Virginia and died after June 29, 1720 of Westmoreland County, Virginia.

+ 12 M ii. Matthew Wyatt died after June 29, 1720 of Westmoreland County, Virginia.

5. Edmund Wyatt (Edmund[1]) was born about 1688 in Westmoreland County, Virginia and died before July 4, 1737 in Richmond County, Virginia.

Edmund Wyatt (c.1688-1737) of Westmoreland County, VA who evidently died in Richmond County, VA before July 4, 1737, was likely the youngest son of Edmund Wyatt (bef.1653-1688) of Westmoreland County. Given that he did not appear in a deed with respect to Edmund Wyatt's estate with Edmund's documented sons James and William in 1707, he was likely too young to have then appeared in court, suggesting he was born shortly before his father's death. He had no documented children, but several that we can infer from records:

1. Daniel Wyatt, who began appearing in Richmond County court in 1740 and had a documented son named Edmund born in Stafford County's Overwharton Parish the same year.

2. Edmund Wyatt, who also had a son born in Overwharton Parish in 1741.

3. James Wyatt, who began appearing in Richmond County court in 1744 and later appeared in Northumberland County records around the same time as Daniel Wyatt; both men are later found in the records of Tryon County and Lincoln County, North Carolina in the 1760s-1780s, with James having purchased property from Daniel in 1769.

4. Elizabeth Wyatt, an orphan who named John Brown her guardian in Richmond County court in 1746; she may be the same Elizabeth Wyatt who sold property to the above James Wyatt in Lincoln County, NC in 1783.

McDANIEL THEORY

She could be sister of James McDaniel (c.1710-aft.1773) who gave security in 1739. McDaniels do appear in N. Farnham Parish register in Richmond County, but not this James. McDaniel was from Westmoreland County, VA but seems to have migrated with the Wyatts to Overwharton Parish in Stafford County where two of his children were born in 1752 and 1755; later a James McDaniel appears in Tryon County, NC as late as June 2, 1773 when he sold land granted to him in 1772 to Samuel Coburn. A James McDaniel, possibly a son or grandson, was granted land in Lincoln Co., NC in 1798.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 13 M i. Daniel Wyatt was born about 1718 in Richmond County, Virginia and died before August 2, 1790 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

+ 14 M ii. Edmund Wyatt Jr. was born about 1720 in Richmond County, Virginia and died after 1748 of Northumberland County, Virginia.

+ 15 M iii. James Wyatt was born about 1722 in Richmond County, Virginia and died after October 12, 1795 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Daniel Wyatt Sr. died between May 1, 1780 when his land warrant was entered and Aug. 2, 1790, the census enumeration date of that year showing his widow Susannah was a head of household.

Daniel married Susannah before 1740. Susannah was born about 1722 and died after 1800 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Susanna Wyatt, who appears in the 1790 and 1800 US census in Spartanburg District, SC, was Daniel's widow. She lived next door to Abraham Wyatt, her likely son.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 17 M i. Edmund Wyatt was born on October 1, 1740 in Stafford County, Virginia and died after 1820 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

+ 18 M ii. Daniel Wyatt Jr. was born before 1749 in Virginia and died before June 21, 1783 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

1748: An "Edmond Wyat" appears in St. Stephen Parish, Northumberland County, VA (Virginia Reconstructed Census, Ancestry.com)

An Edmund Wyatt served in the Revolutionary War in Virginia. He was a private in the continental troops. He appears in the muster rolls of Caroline County, VA with Pitman Wyatt and Elisha Wyatt. It isn't clear that this is the same Edmund Wyatt. (Ancestry.com)

Note: Edmund Wyatt is probably not the father of William Wyatt who married Catherine Julian on Jan. 11, 1776 in Northumberland County, VA. Researchers believe this is William (c.1752-1800) son of William Wyatt of Liverpool, England.

15. James Wyatt (Edmund[2], Edmund[1]) was born about 1722 in Richmond County, Virginia and died after October 12, 1795 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Parents

Both James Wyatt and Daniel Wyatt who appear in Tryon County, NC in the 1760s first entered the historical record in Richmond County, VA. Daniel Wyatt witnessed a deed in Richmond County in 1740; James Wyatt first appeared in court in 1744. They also showed a relationship with Northumberland County around the same time, Daniel Wyatt having witnessed a deed in Northumberland in 1744 and James Wyatt having children baptized there in 1746, 1749 and 1752. So it's clear that their father might be found in either county.

The only Wyatts who appear in Northumberland County records who are old enough to be his father are Edward Wyatt of Gloucester County, son-in-law and executor of John Keene's will in October 1740; and William Wyatt, who was named debtor to Mathew Quill in Northumberland court on Aug. 28, 1740. This is likely William Wyatt, mariner of Gloucester County (d. aft. June 2, 1747), brother to Edward Wyatt. William is not otherwise known to have lived in Northumberland and he is known by letters to have married in Liverpool, England in 1746, having children baptized there through the 1750s, so he can be ruled out as father to James and Daniel. It seems neither Edward nor William ever lived in Northumberland, but only appeared in court. John Wyatt, merchant of Gloucester, mentioned having an estate in Northumberland in a letter of 1756, but he was a young man then and cannot be father of James Wyatt or his siblings.

It is known that Edward Wyatt was a son-in-law of John Keene by the latter's 1740 will in Northumberland County. The will mentions his daughter Eleanor Wyatt and two of her children, John and Elizabeth Wyatt. John appeared in court in 1754 to sell the inherited land and disappears from county records; he could be the same John Wyatt who appears in Lincoln County, North Carolina some fifteen years later but the name John is too common to get excited about.

Elizabeth Wyatt, possibly an unmarried sister of James Wyatt Sr., was deeded land by John Wyatt adjacent James Wyatt on June 21, 1783 in Lincoln County, NC. This may be the same John and Elizabeth Wyatt named grandchildren in the will of John Keene. If so, this would affirm James Wyatt Sr. as a son of Edward Wyatt and Eleanor Keene. There is also an Edward or Edmund Wyatt who witnessed a deed with James Wyatt in Tryon County, NC in 1777.

The will, deed, order and account books of Northumberland show no other Wyatt family in these early years. Edward Wyatt appears in the will books to handle John Keene's estate in 1740-43; then John Wyatt witnessed a deed in 1744; James Wyatt's childrens' births were recorded 1746-52 and he appeared in a suit in 1750. John Wyatt sold land given to him by John Keene in 1754. The Wyatts then vanish from Northumberland.

It is tempting to theorize that Edward Wyatt of Gloucester is father to the Wyatts who immigrated from Northumberland to Tryon County, NC in the 1760s. But this is problematic at best. First, Edward is documented to have married Eleanor Keene, daughter of John Keene, who we know by parish records was born Sep. 29, 1710. It does not seem likely that she could have given birth to men who started having children and appearing in court in 1740. There seems to be no evidence Edward was married twice. Second, Edward was a coastal merchant and spent much of his time overseas, in particular, in Barbados. It seems odd that all of his children would have moved inland to become farmers. Third, Edward is documented to have had children named Edward, John and Elizabeth but no others.

Both James and Daniel Wyatt first appeared in court not in Northumberland, but in Richmond County, VA. Daniel had a son named Edmund in 1740 (Overwharton Parish Register) and an Edmund Wyatt appeared in records with them in North Carolina in the 1760s-1780s. There was an Edmund Wyatt who died intestate in Richmond County and whose widow Mary appeared in court on July 4, 1737 to receive letters of administration on his estate. This Edmund Wyatt we know from other records came from Westmoreland County, the son of a senior Edmund Wyatt, and had documented siblings named Sarah, James and William. His brother William also had a documented son named Vincent Wyatt, which is unique a name we see being appearing in the 1770s in Tryon County, NC.

Because of the uniqueness of some of these names, the circumstantial evidence is strong that the Edmund Wyatt who died in 1737 was the father of the Wyatts who immigrated to Tryon County, NC.

Marriage

Unrecorded; probably took place around 1745. Given that his first child's birth was recorded in the North Farnham Parish Register in Richmond County, VA, his documented wife, Bethlehem Wyatt, was probably the Bethlehem Gathings who was born in North Farnham Parish in 1725.

Ninety-Six/Spartanburg Dist., SC grants

Sep. 1, 1784: James Wyatt Sr. granted 200 acres on the Pacolet River, Ninety-Six District, South Carolina.

This is James's last definite appearance in records; his son James used the suffix "junior" until October 12, 1795 in Spartanburg District court records, suggesting his father was still living until at least then.

James married Bethlehem Gathings, daughter of Philip Gathings and Jane, about 1745 in Richmond County, Virginia. Bethlehem was born on January 4, 1724 in Richmond County, Virginia and died after December 26, 1772 of Tryon County, North Carolina.

> Note: It isn't clear whether the Elizabeth Wyatt who appears in North Carolina is the same Elizabeth in Richmond County or a widow of some other Wyatt. She is presented as an unmarried sister here because it's a best-fit with the available evidence.

Fourth Generation (Great-Grandchildren)

17. Edmund Wyatt (Daniel[3], Edmund[2], Edmund[1]) was born on October 1, 1740 in Stafford County, Virginia and died after 1820 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Nov. 28, 1777: John Low sold to Edmund Wyatt 100 acres on both sides of Rudisel's Creek, granted to William Wyatt Aug. 29, 1768. Also James Wyatt and Edward Wyatt witnessed a deed from Frederick Hambright of Tryon Co., NC to John Low of Caswell Co., NC. (Tryon Co., NC deeds)

Nov. 19, 1778: Edward Wyatt of Tryon Co., NC sold to Stephen Center of same 100 acres on Rudesels Creek, adjacent Rudasel; granted to William Wyatt on Aug. 29, 1768. (Tryon Co., NC deeds)

There is an Edmund Wyatt who appears in two records in Tryon County with a very similar signature to Edward Wyatt in deeds of Nov. 28, 1777 (John Low to James Wyatt and John Low to Edmund Wyatt, the latter being land granted to William Wyatt on Aug. 29, 1768, showing they are clearly the same person).

Mar. 1779: James, William, Vincent, Daniel and Edmund Wyatt appear in a petition to the General Assembly from citizens of Lincoln County requesting the return of their field officers.

April 7, 1783: Complaint by William Varnor against James Wyatt the Younger, laborer and Abraham Wyatt, laborer in a felony criminal indictment in Lincoln County, NC court for petty larceny. Varnor accused the men of stealing a side of leather on Aug. 1, 1782. Witnesses include Edward Wyatt, Lillian Wyatt, Jonn. Wyatt, Mary Waygrum (Wagram), Rachel Wyatt, James Wyatt Sr., Mary Vinsant.

Oct. 9, 1783: Edmund Wyatt grant in Lincoln Co., NC for 200 acres on the long branch of Little Long Creek.

Feb. 6, 1785. Deed recorded in Book 18 page 600, Edmond Wyatt to James Gray, consideration 100 pounds 200 acres on Long Branch of Long Creek. Signed: Edmond x Wyatt. Witnesses: James Henderson, Arthur Graham, Arch Morrison, Daniel Gray (Lincoln Co., NC)

1790 US census: "Edwd Wayett" in Lincoln Co., NC. (3-2-3)

Jan. 1799: Edmund Wyatt named in "evidence ticket" (apparently he was paid for supplying evidence at trial) in case of David Hanks v. Martin Hoyle (Lincoln Co., NC)

He could be the "Edward Wyatt" who appears in deeds of Spartanburg Dist., SC:

Aug. 29, 1798: James Blackwell of Spartanburg Dist., SC to Edward Wyatt of NC, 150 acres on Suck Creek.

Apr. 20, 1803: Edward Wyatt of Spartanburg Dist., SC to Peter Gosnell sold 140 acres on Suck Creek.

“Edward Wyatt” appears in no further deeds. He does appear in the 1800 census of Spartanburg District (00111-00101), age 45+ (b. bef.1755), and he has a son who was born before 1775.

There is an Edmond Wyatt (00001-00001) who is probably the same man, in the 1810 US census, evidently quite old with all his children out of the nest in Spartanburg District, living right next door to a John Wyatt (50010-11010).

This same Edmund Wyatt was enumerated one last time in Spartanburg District in 1820 (00001-00001) with no nearby Wyatts.

Lincoln Co., NC marriage bonds—several of these may be children of Edmund Wyatt, who remained in Lincoln County as late as 1799:

Elizabeth Wyatt m. Robert Armour Nov. 7, 1786
James Wyatt m. Mary Wyrim Mar. 19, 1787
Nancy Wyatt m. Dater Garnell Feb. 4, 1788
Thomas Weyette m. Agy Horton Mar. 6, 1793
Susannah Wyatt m. William Levan Apr. 1, 1795
William Wyatt m. Jane Holloway Jan. 13, 1804

Edmund’s wife is unknown.

His children were:

29 M i. Jeremiah Wyatt was born in February 1762 in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina and died before January 16, 1855 in Vanderburgh County, Indiana.

Jeremiah could be the son of Daniel Wyatt (c.1718-bef.1790), his son Edmund Wyatt (c1740-aft.1820) or James Wyatt Sr. (c.1722-1795). Everyone else is too young. Daniel seems unlikely since he died in the 1780s and Jeremiah reports having taken advice from his father at least three or four years after the war ended (c.1787). Also, Daniel Wyatt was recorded in a deed in Granville County, NC in late 1762, long after Jeremiah reported being born in Mecklenburg County. He doesn't seem likely to be a son of James Wyatt Sr. given that James's whole family moved to South Carolina in 1784-90. Given that Jeremiah's only son was named Edmund, Edmund Wyatt seems the most likely father of Jeremiah.

Sep. 10 and 19, 1796: Peter Hoyle issues arrest orders in a debt case against Jeremiah Wyatt and Leonard Wyatt (Lincoln Co., NC Civil Action Papers 1771-1806)

Jeremiah Wyatt, age 86, resident of Vanderburgh County, Indiana stated in his Revolutionary War pension application on Dec. 14, 1847 that he was born in Mecklenburg County, NC in February 1762 and enrolled in the service from said county. After the war he kept his discharge papers "three or four years" then used it to claim scrip for his service and "by the advice of his father" kept that scrip three or four years until he turned it in to a paymaster in Lincoln County, NC. He said that after his service he lived in Lincoln County and Rutherford County, NC then moved to Wilson Co. TN in 1808 and finally to Vanderburgh Co., IN. He also stated his only son, Edmund Wyatt, had recently been killed in the Spanish-American War in the Battle of Buena Vista in Mexico.

Jeremiah finally wrote his will on Aug. 29, 1854 naming daughter Sarah Tomkins, grandson James William Tomkins. Leroy Calvert named executor. His will was proven in Vanderburgh Co., IN court on Jan. 16, 1855.

Jeremiah married Margaret. Margaret was born about 1766 in North Carolina and died after 1850 of Vanderburgh County, Indiana.

30 M ii. Leonard Wyatt was born about 1764 in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina and died after June 25, 1860 of Madison County, North Carolina.

Sep. 10 and 19, 1796: Peter Hoyle issues arrest orders in a debt case against Jeremiah Wyatt and Leonard Wyatt (Lincoln Co., NC Civil Action Papers 1771-1806)

1800 US census: Leonard Wyatt (b.1755-74) appears in Spartanburg Dist., SC. He had a wife and one son and one daughter, both under 10. This suggests he married right around 1795.

Leonard Wyatt, farmer, age 98, b. NC, appears in household of A. F. Buckner, age 37 and wife Rachel, age 38, in Madison Co., NC in the 1860 US census.

The fact that Leonard remained in Lincoln County, North Carolina as late as 1796 suggests he was a son of Edmund, who isn't found in South Carolina until 1798, whereas most of the James Wyatt clan moved to South Carolina 1784-90.

31 F iii. Elizabeth Wyatt was born about 1766 in North Carolina and died after 1786 of Lincoln County, North Carolina.

Elizabeth married Robert Armour on November 7, 1786 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

32 F iv. Nancy Wyatt was born about 1768 in North Carolina and died after 1788 of Lincoln County, North Carolina.

Nancy married Dater Garnell on February 4, 1788 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

33 F v. Susannah Wyatt was born about 1777 in Tryon County, North Carolina and died after 1795 of Lincoln County, North Carolina.

Susannah Wyatt, who appears in a marriage bond in 1795, is probably a daughter of Edmund Wyatt, given that his mother's name was Susannah (per the Overwharton Parish Register).

Susannah married William Levan on April 1, 1795 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

34 M vi. John Wyatt was born about 1784 in Lincoln County, North Carolina and died after 1820 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

There is an Edmond Wyatt (00001-00001) in the 1810 US census, evidently quite old with all his children out of the nest in Spartanburg District, living right next door to John Wyatt, a likely son, b.1765-84 (50010-11010).

John Wyatt appears in Spartanburg District in 1820, age 26-45 (b.1775-1794).

In the 1840 US census of Spartanburg District, he is age 40-49 (b.1790-1800).

18. Daniel Wyatt Jr. (Daniel[3], Edmund[2], Edmund[1]) was born before 1749 in Virginia and died before June 21, 1783 in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

Apr. 24, 1769: James Wyatt and Bethlehem his wife of Tryon Co. to Daniel Wyatt of same, 100 ac. on east side of south fork of Catawba River. Part of patent to James Wyatt of 392 ac. Wit: Patrick McDavid, John Low, George Lumkin. Same day and witnesses, James and Bethlehem also sold to John Wyatt 100 ac. on Peter Bosses line. (Tryon Co., NC deeds)

Sep. 14, 1778: Daniel Wyatt Jr. warrant for 100 acres in Tryon County, NC entered; issued posthumously on Nov. 10, 1784 in Lincoln Co., NC.

June 21, 1783: John Wyatt deeded to Elizabeth Wyatt 100 acres on the Catawba River, adjacent James Wyatt, part of a grant to said James Wyatt for 392 acres, conveyed to Daniel Wyatt Jr., and said Daniel dying without heirs of his body, the land fell to said John Wyatt. (Lincoln Co., NC)

19. Abraham Wyatt (Daniel[3], Edmund[2], Edmund[1]) was born about 1762 in Granville County, North Carolina and died before 1830 in Stewart County, Tennessee.

Abraham Wyatt was said by family tradition to have been born in 1762. Given that one of his older son's name was Daniel, he was very likely a son of Daniel Wyatt Sr. He also lived right next door to Daniel Wyatt Sr.'s widow, Susannah Wyatt, in the 1800 US census.

Revolutionary War Service

Jan. 24, 1781: In the book Loyalists in the Southern Campaign of the Revolutionary War by Murtie June Clark Volume one pages 376 and 377, James and Abraham Wyatt are listed at muster of Major Nicholas Welch's Company, Royal North Carolina Regiment, Hillsborough, NC 4 Feb 1781. They enlisted to serve 24 Feb- 24 Apr 1781. Under remarks it says that Abraham had previously enlisted 24 Jan 1781 so this was at least his second round.

Lincoln Co., NC orders

April 7, 1783: Mary Waygrum testified on behalf of James Wyatt the Younger, laborer and Abraham Wyatt, laborer in a suit in Lincoln County, NC court. Other witnesses include Edward Wyatt, Lillian Wyatt, Jonn. Wyatt, Rachel Wyatt, James Wyatt Sr., Mary Vinsant. (Lincoln Co., NC orders)

Nov. 25, 1797: Abraham Wyatt witnesses a deed from Henry Wyatt of Tennessee to John Pitman. (Spartanburg Co., SC deeds)

1800 US census: Abraham Wyatt b.1755-74, appears in Spartanburg Co., SC next door to Susannah Wyatt (only two women b. bef.1755 in her household); Isham Wyatt (10010-10010) and Zachariah Wyatt (10100-10100) are on the same page. By 1813, all three of these men appear in Stewart Co., Tennessee along with Daniel Wyatt, Solomon Wyatt, James Wyatt, etc.

July 25, 1806: Abraham Wyatt sold to Lewis Cannon 100 acres on the Pacolet River. He left South Carolina around this time.

Stewart Co./Perry Co., TN

Aug. 4, 1808: Abraham Wyatt granted 100 acres in Stewart Co., TN.

1820 US census: Abraham Wyatt b.1775-94, appears in Perry Co. TN next door to Samuel Wyatt. This must be Abraham Wyatt Jr.

June 1820: Abraham Wyatt Sr. and Abraham Wyatt Jr. among other Wyatts appear in a petition in Perry Co., TN.

1830 US census: "Larina Wyatt" age 60-69, head of household in Perry Co., TN.

An Abraham Wyatt appears in 1840 US census, Lincoln Co., NC, b.1780-90. This man was 16-25 in 1810 and so was born in 1785-90.

Biographical work

"Abraham Wyatt, the maternal grandfather of our subject, was born in South Carolina and served in the Continental army, which he entered at the age of thirteen, in the year 1775. Lavina Masengale became his wife and they had the following children: John, who married Mary Murphy; Susan, who became the wife of George Martin; Daniel, who married Mary Johnson; Solomon, who married a Miss Plunckett; Samuel who married Mary Johnson; Abraham, who married Sarah McCormack; Nancy, who became the wife of Amos Collier; Elizabeth, who married Isaac Beshears; Sarah, who became Mrs. Daniel Murphy; Isham, who married Mary Murphy; Absalom, who married Sarah Henley; Martha, who became the wife of William Lloyd; Lavina, who became the wife of Moses Collier; William who married Mary Beshears; and Reuben."

Other genealogical work

I am descendent of Abraham and Lavinia Massengale Wyatt. I heard a story that our Abraham who came to Stewart Co TN ran away from home in Northampton Co NC at age 13 to join the SC Militia after his father, also Abraham joined the British (Tory) army. Indeed in the list of Loyalists (Tories) in NC there was an Abraham Wyatt from Northhampton Co and a James who might have been a brother. Do not know if they survived the war. The Wyatts and Massengales probably came from VA to NC and I suspect the Wyatts descend from Haute Wyatt of Jamestown. Wish it could be proved. I have a list of children of Abraham and Lavinia Wyatt from History of Texas. Any info would be appreciated. I would be glad to correspond.This has been a very confusing family to trace. Too many tall tales and rumors. Somewhere in there must be the truth. DEW

For some reason most of my message disappeared when I posted it. The last comments went through. I will try to do the first part over/. In the book "Loyalists in the Southern Campaign of the Revolutionary War" by Murtie June Clark Volume one pages 376 and 377 James and Abraham Wyatt are listed at muster of Major Nicholas Welch's Company, Royal North Carolina Regiment, Hillsborough, NC 4 Feb 1781. They enlisted to serve 24 Feb- 24 Apr 1781. Under remarks it says that Abraham had previously enlisted 24 Jan 1781 so this was at least his second round. Now this brings up more questions. Was this our Abraham or his father and was James his brother or his father? I have never seen any real indication that our Abraham's father was another Abraham. I think this may be confused with the fact that Lavinia's father was Abraham Massengale. I always thought this was too many Abrahams for one family. I have never found Abraham in the Rev Army in SC miltia or anywhere else despite the tales. A lot of the Tories ran from NC after Cornwallis was driven out of it. Many left the country but lots of others fled to the wilds of SC and NC and laid low to escape persecution. Obviously they didn't tell folks they had been in the British Militia. I have no evidence that Abraham ever saw Lavinia in NC. Lots of Massengales moved to SC too after the Rev and lived near the Wyatts. They probably met and married there. Some of the Massengales also came with them to Stewart Co TN and in county court records etc are sometimes spelled Masseville. At any rate I think it very likely that this was our Abraham. I am working on Spartanburg Co Deed extracts and it looks like all these Wyatts in Spartanburg Co and adjacent Tryon and Lincoln Co NC are related. Tryon was divided between NC and SC when it was abolished. Now to find out where James and Abraham lived when they enlisted and connect them back to VA. They are likely part of the Haute Wyatt group. Maybe this is a start. DEW

The Wyatt family is difficult and I certainly do not know for a fact that Abraham's father was Abraham on Northampton Co NC. In checking Spartanburg Co SC deeds I find that Abraham bought 100 acres on Pacolet River in 1798 and then sold it in July 1806.I assume he was leaving to move to TN about this time. In Nov 1797 Henry Wyatt sold 240 acres on Pacolate R. which was part of 267 acres granted to Henry Nov 19, 1795. Abraham was witness to deed. Soo I think it is poss that Henry was Abrahams's father. Do not know what the grant was for. See-" Spartanburg County/District South Carolina Deed Abstracts Books A-T 1785-1827 (1785-1827" by Albert Bruce Pruitt.There are many Wyatts in that area and they seem to be related. Somewhere in there I am convinced are answers to that line's origins, but I have not been able to get them lined up. Hope you will take a look and see if you can. 1820 Census TN does not show Abraham but does show several in Stewart Co.He might have died before 1820. By 1830 cnsus several are in Perry Co. In 1840 sev Wyatts are in Stewart and Perry but no Abraham nor Lavinia.The 1830 census show Lavinia as head of household in Perry Co.I figure she died between 1830 and 1840. Will be glad to correspond any time or answer any questions I can. Do you have the list of Ab and Lavinia's children. I do if you need it. DEW

Secondary sources cite Daniel Wyatt as the son of Abraham Wyatt and Lavina Massengale, born in 1789 in North Carolina. The family moved west to Tennessee. and there he married Mary A "Polly" Johnson. Daniel settled first in Stewart County. He is on the Stewart County tax list in 1811 and 1812. He appears in the Stewart County Deed books in 1819 and 1820.

He was in Captain Josiah Askew's Company of Militia Infantry in Stewart County, and served from 7 April - 6 May, 1812, alongside his brother,

On march between Fort Deposite & Fort Jackson between July 4th & 31st he stated, in the presence of some of his troops, there was no law to compel them to serve longer than 3 months and he would march his company home at the end of that time. Also charged with mutiny and desertion at that time were a number of men, including Daniel Wyatt as well as Solomon and Samuel Wyatt. They pled guilty and were ordered to make good the time lost when absent from duty, that 1/3 their pay be stopped, and at the end of their respective service they would have 1/2 their hair shaved off and then drummed out of camp.

By 1830 Daniel and his family had moved to Perry County, Tennessee. He appears in Decatur County, Tennessee in 1850, (which had split off from Perry County in 1845), and in 1860. He had purchased land in 1840 in Perry County, was granted land in Decatur County on September 20, 1849 and sold land to Solomon Wyatt in Decatur County in 1855 In 1862 he was taxed on 337 acres of land, worth $1500.

Other genealogical work

Samuel Wyatt was born about 1798 to Abraham Wyatt and Lavina Massengale, who were living in South Carolina at the time of his birth.

His parents later moved the family to Tennessee and he served in the War of 1812 along with his brothers Solomon and Daniel in Captain Strother's regiment of Tennessee militiamen. Like his brothers he ended up being charged with mutiny and desertion. They each pled guilty and were ordered to make good the time lost when absent from duty, that 1/3 their pay be stopped, and at the end of their respective service they would have 1/2 their hair shaved off and then drummed out of camp. Apparently on march between Fort Deposite & Fort Jackson between July 4th & 31st Captain Strother stated, in the presence of some of his troops, there was no law to compel them to serve longer than 3 months and he would march his company home at the end of that time. Having listened to their captain and leaving without permission, they were convicted at a general court martial convened on December 5, 1814.

He is in the 1820 Census with his wife Mary Ann "Polly" Johnson, both 16-25. They had not yet had any children. Also on that Census page were his older brothers Abraham and John. They were also there at the time of the 1830 Census, this time with five children. They were living adjacent to his brothers Absolom, John and Daniel.

He has not yet been found in the 1840 Census, however, it is probable that by then he had moved to Mississippi, probably in Desoto County. His brothers Absolom and Reuben can be found enumerated there, his son Elijah was there in the 1850 Census and his son Abraham (A. Wyatt, age 12) was recorded as being born there.

By 1850 the family had moved to Upshur County, Texas. Again many of his family members had moved there, also, including his sister Martha who had married William Lloyd, and later his brother, Reuben.

Samuel and Polly had the following known children:

Elijah D 1821-1862
Anderson B 1823-1907
Sarah Caroline
Joseph 1828-d. young
Nancy
Rebecca Elaine
Richard
Mary
Abraham 1837-1894
Evaline A

Neither Samuel or Mary are found in the 1870 Census, but Mary "Polly" is widowed and living with their son Abraham at the time of the 1880 Census.

Samuel married Mary Johnson about 1820.

44 M x. Isham Wyatt was born on June 27, 1799 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina and died before October 7, 1878 in Decatur County, Tennessee.

The Tennessee Library and Archives has a handwritten document listing the births of Isham, his two wives and their children. He was born on June 27, 1799 and married first Mary Brashears (b. Oct 19, 1806) on August 23, 1827. Their children were:

Isaac b. May 31, 1828
Abraham b. January 1, 1830
Jesse b. January 2, 1832
Ellender b. April 20, 1834
Sarah b. January 6, 1836
William b. January 1, 1838
Mary Elizabeth b. May 24, 1840
Lavinia b. January 22, 1844

His second wife was Tempia, or Temperence Winn. They were married some time between 1844, the year of birth of Mary's last child, and 1848, when Temperence's first child was born. Her children were:

George Washington b. November 14, 1848
Simpson Leroy b. February 1, 1850
Reuben b. October 30, 1851
Thomas Wesley b. February 15, 1853
John Odom b. April 7, 1859
Nancy Jane b. December 1862
Isham Geharis b. February 1864

He was living in Perry County, Tennessee at the time of the1830 Census. Also on the Census were his brothers and his widowed mother, Lavina. In Isham's household were two males under 5, one male 30-39, one female 5-9, one female 10-14, one female 15-19, and one female 20-29. He was also in Perry County at the time of the 1840 Census. In his household was one male under 5, three males 5-9, one male 40-49, two females under 5, and one female 30-39.

In 1845 Decatur County was formed from a part of Perry County and in the 1850 Census Isham was enumerated in this new County. Presumably he was on the same land that he owned prior to the boundary change. He is living with his second wife, Temperance, and children from both wives.

At the time of the 1870 Census, Isham owned land valued at $1200 which he farmed with his oldest sons who were still living at home.

The administrator for the estate of Isham Wyatt was named in documents dated October 7, 1878, implying his death in that year. Bondsmen were C.C. Newell, W.D. Wyatt and J.J. Lancaster.

Jones Theory

Feb. 19, 1793: Elisha Jones, James Wyatt and John Wyatt were buyers at the estate sale of Thomas Hawkins in Lincoln Co., NC.

Given that Mary had a son named Elisha Jones Wyatt, it's a strong possibility she was related to Elisha Jones of Lincoln Co., NC.

Elisha Jones married in 1794. He was 26-44 years of age in 1800 (b. 1755-1774), and so could be the brother of our Mary. In the 1800 census, Elisha is next door to Charles Jones (b. bef.1755).

Charles Jones listed as a founding member when Long Creek Baptist Church was reorganized in 1794 in present-day Gaston County, NC. It had originally been founded in 1772 or 1777. (Annals of Lincoln Co., NC)

A Charles Jones married an Elizabeth Horton on Nov. 7, 1797 in Lincoln Co., NC. This is certainly the younger man who begins appearing in 1810 census record. Probably son of Charles.

Charles Jones 1790 census Lincoln Co., NC (1 wm, 7 wf)
Charles Jones 1800 census Lincoln Co., NC (00101-12201)
Charles Jones 1810 census Lincoln Co., NC (younger man, age 26-44).

Charles Jones did not have a will/probate in Lincoln Co. NC. https://www.ncgenealogy.org/north-carolina-estate-files-lincoln-county-index/

Charles Jones witnessed the will of Elijah Jenkins Oct. 18, 1803 in Lincoln Co., NC.

Charles Jones is found in tax records of Craven Co., NC as far back as 1769. There are many other Joneses including Robert and Thomas in Lincoln/Tryon going back to 1769.

So who were Elisha Jones parents? A thorough analysis of the Joneses of Tryon and Lincoln Counties don't reveal any relevant deeds or wills that might shed light on this question. But we do have a couple of decent clues:

1. Elisha Jones appears next door to a Charles Jones (born before 1755) in the 1800 US census of Lincoln County, North Carolina. Charles is at least a decade older than Elisha (who married in 1794, and was probably born in the late 1760s or early 1770s) and could be either his father or older brother.

2. Elisha Jones's papers for the estate of Thomas Hawkins reveal a note dated October 8, 1795 where Jones informs the court that he could not locate an important account book pertaining to a John Whiteford but noted he believed Benjamin Jones of Maryland also had the right of administration.

3. Zachariah Spencer granted security for Elisha Jones for the administration of the Hawkins estate.

Zachariah Spencer (1761-1835) of Lincoln County, North Carolina, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland, the son of a senior Zachariah Spencer (1732-1789), who also migrated to Lincoln County; this Zachariah was the son of another Zachariah Spencer (c.1705-c.1783) and his wife Christina Cobb of Maryland.

Christina Cobb was sister-in-law to Charles Jones of Baltimore County (1703-1767), who had sons Benjamin Jones (1728-1797), likely the Benjamin Jones mentioned in the above note; and Charles Jones (1731-aft.1752), who disappears from Maryland records after 1752, and is likely father of the Lincoln and Rutherford County Jones families, which may include Benjamin Jones (bef.1755-1809), Charles Jones Jr. (d. aft.1830), James Lee Jones (d.bef.1790) and Littleberry Jones (d. aft.1810), all of Rutherford County, North Carolina.

The Hawkins family likewise migrated with the Spencer and Jones families from Baltimore County, Maryland to North Carolina and the families show repeated intermarriages through the generations.

This makes Elisha Jones of North Carolina a second cousin of Zachariah Spencer, and a nephew of "Benjamin Jones of Maryland."

So if Elisha Jones was a younger son of Charles Jones and Hannah Nichols of Baltimore County, Maryland who married on December 26, 1752, it seems possible that Mary Wyatt was one of their older children, born c.1753-54.

Dec. 26, 1772: James Wyatt and Bethlehem his wife of Tryon Co. to Zechariah Spencer of Delaware Co., MD. Land on Catawba adj. Hugh Berry. Granted to said James Wyatt Oct. 26, 1767. This shows a direct connection between the above Zachariah Spencer (1732-1789) and James Wyatt Sr.

Children from this marriage were:

50 M i. John Wyatt was born on March 29, 1772 in Tryon County, North Carolina and died on February 24, 1869 in Cumberland County, Tennessee.

There is a record of John's daughter, Mrs. Zilpha Flynn, as told to her son, giving John's birth date as March 29, 1772 in Buncombe County, North Carolina. (Although Buncombe County was formed in 1791 from parts of Burke and Rutherford, and prior to that Rutherford County was formed from the western part of Tryon County in 1779, presumably she knew this and was using the modern name for the location.) She also gave John's fathers name as James Wyatt.

John married Sarah Trembell on July 4, 1794.

51 M ii. Elisha Jones Wyatt was born about 1785 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina and died after December 30, 1839 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

His father, James Wyatt Jr., gifted him land in 1815; he sold it in December 1839 to Jacob Philips.

James next married Mary Wagram on March 19, 1787 in Lincoln County, North Carolina. Mary was born before 1770 and died after September 23, 1795 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

April 7, 1783: Complaint by William Varnor against James Wyatt the Younger, laborer and Abraham Wyatt, laborer in a felony criminal indictment in Lincoln County, NC court for petty larceny. Varnor accused the men of stealing a side of leather on Aug. 1, 1782. Witnesses include Edward Wyatt, Lillian Wyatt, Jonn. Mar. 19, 1787: James Wyatt married Mary "Wyrim" (Wagram) in Lincoln Co., NC. Bondsman: James Center/Senter. (Lincoln County marriage bonds, via Ancestry.com)

Mary Wyatt on September 23, 1795 signed off her dower right in the land sale from her husband James Wyatt to Job Sosbree. This is her last known record appearance. (Spartanburg Co. deeds)

The child from this marriage was:

52 F i. Mary Wyatt was born about 1788 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina and died in 1826-1830 in Buncombe County, North Carolina.

Mary Wyatt / Wiatt / Weyett was born circa 1790 near the Pacolate River in Spartanburg County, SC.

At that time Spartanburg County adjoined Buncombe County, NC. Her apparent father James Wyatt, Jr. was on the Pacolate River in Spartanburg County by 1784.

By 1785 Abraham Anders was living near James Wyatt. Mary Wyatt was the first wife of Jack Anders, son of elder Abraham Anders. Early research on this Anders family was done by Judge Charles McDarris in articles which he submitted for the book, "The Heritage of Old Buncombe County North Carolina Volume II" (1987).

McDarris writes, "Jackie and Mary and the two children removed to the Coleman Boundary in the Big Ivy section of Buncombe County around 1825. Older members of the family passed down the tale that the varmits were so bad in the Coleman Boundary, that Mary soon had Jackie move to the Whittemore Branch, then McGirts Creek, below Barnardsville.

Mary did not live long after the family moved to the Ingle Cove, entered as a land grant on McGirts Creek. Mary is buried in the cemetery at the mouth of today's Whittemore Branch." Jack Anders is also likely buried here near his wife. This seems to be the same cemetery which is today called "Big Ivy Cemetery". A granite monument at the cemetery reads that it was established in 1894, but this is an error because an original tombstone was found in the cemetery for a Jeremiah Williams born 1796 and died 1847.

Mary died between 1826 (birth of daughter Lucretia) and by 1830. She is not reflected on the 1830 census. This cemetery is today located at the junction of Whittemore Branch Road and Highway 197, adjacent to the present Barnardsville Church of God. Whittemore Branch runs nearby and under the highway feeding into Big Ivy Creek. Jack and Mary's son James Alfred Anders lived nearby on what is now Dillingham Road about a mile past the fire department. The above written by D.C. Stewart, Etowah, TN.

https://www.wikitree.com/wiki/Wyatt-3313

Mary married Jack Anders.

Deweese Family Group Sheet #499 shows his name as "Jackson". Could be a middle name, as his nickname was "Jackie."

The Anders were a prominent family in the Big Ivy community of Buncombe Co. NC in the 1820's. Though some records have the surname as Andrews, the tombstones in Big Ivy Cemetery have Anders. On the 1840 census of Buncombe Co. he is called "Jack". Jack Anders is believed to have been a son of Abraham Anders who lived in then bordering Spartanburg Co. SC.
Marriage

There is a tradition in the family that the Anders were of Melungeon descent through an ancestor of Jack Anders first spouse. The first wife of Jack Anders was Mary Wyatt / Wiatt (c1790-1826). His second wife was Sarah Bennett. The area they lived in is today Barnardsville, NC, near Asheville.
Children

The children of Jack Anders by his first wife were,

James Alfred Anders.
Vinie Anders (dau.) Deweese.
Abraham Anders, apparently named after his grandfather Abraham Anders.
Lucretia Anders Stewart.

Children by the second wife,

John G. Anders.
Stacey Anders. married Henry Duncan.
Matilda Anders.
Hiram Anders, moved to Madison Co. NC.
Washington Anders.
Hester A. Anders.
Laura Anders. married Henry Banks.
Martha Anders.
Franklin Anders.

Parents

While co-migration from Tryon/Lincoln Co., NC to Spartanburg Dist., SC and numerous documented connections to James Wyatt Jr. indicate that Vincent belongs in the Northumberland Wyatt family, his exact connection to James isn't explicitly stated in records. The fact that James Wyatt Jr. was an adjoining neighbor of Vincent Wyatt Sr. and Vincent Wyatt Jr. suggests he was a brother of Sr. Vincent also named one of his sons William, a name that is documented to appear among the sons of James Wyatt Sr.

Vincent married Elizabeth Spencer, daughter of Zachariah Spencer and Ann Pogue, about 1777 in Tryon County, North Carolina. Elizabeth was born on November 17, 1757 in Baltimore County, Maryland and died after June 29, 1818 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

"Nov. 17, 1757. There was born Elizabeth, daughter of Zachariah Spencer and Ann his wife." (St. George Parish Register, Baltimore Co., MD)

Zachariah Spencer names wife Ann and "Elizabeth my first born" among the children in his will on Sep. 6, 1789 (Lincoln Co., NC). He names "Vinson Wyatt" executor. Vincent Wyatt's wife was named Elizabeth in several deeds in North and South Carolina. They also had sons named Zachariah and Spencer Wyatt.

The circumstantial evidence is overwhelming that Zachariah Spencer was the father-in-law of Vincent Wyatt.

Children from this marriage were:

53 F i. Nancy Wyatt was born about 1778 in Tryon County, North Carolina and died about 1806 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Identification source

A 1950s genealogy by Mary Zerelda Cannon identifies the wives of "John Cannon" (actually Lewis) as 1.) Nancy Wyatt and 2.) Elizabeth Templeman and names children known to belong to Lewis, per census records and his will. http://www.gotcousins.com/taaffe-cannon/mazies-family-tree-by-rosemary-initial-scan

Mary Zerelda Cannon's source may be partially derived from a 1930 account by a grandson of Nahum Cannon (1806-1894), according to Sarah Toogood:

"I believe we are talking about the same Nahum.This is the first time I have heard that he was married twice.My mom has been helping me with my research through relatives who are still living.There seems to be much confusion on my end in regards to the name of Nahum's father.I have seen Lewis many times, however, I have a copy of a letter which gives a direct account and very detailed account of Nahum and Cynthia Wyatt and their courtship and move to Arkansas and Nahum's father is clearly indicated as being John Cannon married to Nancy Wyatt. I would very much like to correspond with you directly about this.I am very interested in trying to find the source documentation to help determine this lineage correctly. If you are willing to correspond with me directly please email me at mstoogood@juno.com"

Sarah Toogood's post may refer to the following narrative, said to date from 1930. It incorrectly states Nahum was a son of John Cannon, and notes that John was married twice. However, it does not mention Nancy Wyatt by name.

The following is from an original narrative typed by a family member (unkown) on March 21, 1930. I'm retyping here in full - grammar and spelling errors in tact - but I did and paragraphs to make it more readable. The accuracy of the narrative is a bit questionable with respect to the earlier family, (it appears the Ellis Cannon generation is missing) but worth the read. Harley L. Phillips was my grandfather- Lila Jean McGrew 30 OCT 2010

The Cannon family was among the early Colonial families of America. John Cannon and his wife came from Northumberland, England, to this country about the year 1635. The vessel on which he came was wrecked off the coast of New Foundland in a storm, and a passing ship rescued the family and crew, together with others on the vessel. They were landed on the shores of Massachusetts, where the family resided only a short time.

From there they went to Culpepper county, Virginia, and lived for about two years, and then to Carolina before that colony was divided into North and South Carolina. John Cannon who first came over was the ancester of three generations whoes names appear in the records of the varius colonies, but the direct line of descent has not been determined by the writer of this sketch, but the children of the third generation in America that are ancestors of this scribe were John, Jesse and James.

The of these brothers, John Cannon, was born about 1760, and was a Lieutenant in the War of the Revolution. he was twice married and had born to him by the first marriage, Joel, Elija, Zachariah, Naoma, and Nahum Cannon. By the second marriage were born Lewis, Noah, Naaman, Simeon, Murkeson, Bettie, Emley, Annie, and Ceneth, fourteen children in all.

Louis Cannon came west about 1835 and located in Texas, where his descendants are living today. He was a great musician.

Nahum Cannon, grandfather of the writer was born in 1806 in South Carolina, came thence to Tennessee in 1827 at the age of 21 years. On the Cumberland River in 1830 he married Cynthia Wyatt, and in 1832 came to Arkansas and located in what is now Green County. He did not remain there but a short time until he returned to Tennessee.

He came back to Arkansas in 1854, bought about 1000 acres of land at and around Gravelly Point, six miles southeast of Lockesburg. Of course at that date there was no Lockesburg or Gravelly Point.

He built the second house on the road from Center Point to old Paraclifta. The old home place is now owned and occupied by William Cannon, oldest grandson of Nahum Cannon. After seventy-six years the old home is still in a good state of preservation. He died near Lockesburg in 1894, and is burried in the Bellville cemetary. To his marriage were born eight children, Joel, Louis, Mary, John, James, P., Noah, Zachariah, and Melissa. The last named is the only surviving one of the family.

The fourth one of the above children was the father of the writer. John Cannon married Mary Francis Turrentive in 1867. To this marriage was born seven boys, George, James, Louis, Archelaus, Edward, Robert an Shird.

A cousin of Nahum Cannon, John Cannon, came to western Arkansas at an early date and lived and died near Lockesburg. His descendants still live in Sevier county at De Queen and Lockesburg.

The following named Cannons were either military officers or private soldiers in the Revolutionary War; Capt. Mathew Cannon, John Cannon, Lieut. John Cannon, Pvt. Roger Cannon, Benjamin Cannon, Dennis Cannon, Henry Cannon, Lieut. Louis Cannon, Lieut. William J Cannon, Andrew Cannon, Samuel Cannon, Wm. Cannon, James Cannon, Nathaniel Cannon, Nahum Cannon.

The Cannon family was among the landed proprietors and gentry of England, and their adopted family crest is the crescent with the points perpendicular mounted on a curved shaft, with large double buckle resting between the crescent points. The color is azure blue. The motto engraved on it is "OUR HOPE INCREASES".

Joel Cannon, oldest son of Nahum Cannon, mentioned above, in about 1876, was married to Harriet Offie Bell. To this marriage one daughter, Alice Victoria Cannon was born, January 3rd 1877. She, in 1906, married O. F. Phollips. To this union three sons were born, Joel Terry Phillips, Chester Curtis Phillips, and Harley Lindsy Phillips.

Theory of Paternity

There are a few connections between Lewis Cannon and the Wyatts in Spartanburg District deeds and orders:

Sep. 12, 1797: "Vincent Wyatt view the best way for a road from the fork of the road from Lewis Cannon's to Hewett's Cabbin into the Camp Ferry Rd. leading to Spartan Courthouse and report to next court thereon."

Oct. 6, 1798: Book G, p* 55 - Joseph Davis of Tennessee State, Green County - 200 acres on the South side of Pacolet River, "being part of a survey made for Jesse Connell" - joins Aaron Templeman's - "being at a distance I make and ordain, Constitute and appoint my much valued friend Vincent Wyatt of South Carolina my true and lawful attorney." Witnesses: Ellis Cannon, Lewis Cannon, William Cannon.

July 25, 1806: Abraham Wyatt sold to Lewis Cannon 100 acres on the Pacolet River in Spartanburg District. This is likely the Abraham Wyatt who removed to Stewart Co., TN and died there before 1830.

In the 1800 US census of Spartanburg District, SC, the closest Wyatts to Lewis Cannon are Zachariah Wyatt (son of Vincent, according to his will), Isham Wyatt, Abraham Wyatt and Susanna Wyatt, the last of whom are next door neighbors and separate heads of household. All of these Wyatts appear just one page before Lewis Cannon in Spartanburg Dist. Abraham and Isham are both 26-45 in 1800 (b. 1755-74). Zachariah Wyatt is 16-26.

ELIMINATIONS (SPARTANBURG DISTRICT, SC WYATTS)

Abraham Wyatt can't be Nancy's father; his children are well documented and he already has a daughter named Nancy, b. 1790s.

Given that his first child was born in 1746 (Northumberland Co. VA parish registers), it seems unlikely James Wyatt Sr. (c.1726-c.1795) of Spartanburg District is her father.

Henry Wyatt's age is unknown, but he seems more likely to be the same generation as Nancy, given that he only appears in records from 1787 to 1797. Henry removed to Tennessee by November 1797 according to a deed in Spartanburg District, SC.

Isham Wyatt's appearance in the 1800 census indicates he was a young dad, with one son and a daughter, both under age 10 at the time. This makes it very unlikely he was the father of Nancy, who had herself been married a few years by then.

Edmund/Edward Wyatt (bef.1755-aft.1803) and James Wyatt Jr. (c.1752-aft.1818) are good candidates. James is known to have had sons named John and Elisha and at least five daughters, but his children are not well documented. James Wyatt Jr. also shows numerous connections to Vincent Wyatt and the Cannon family in deeds spanning decades:

June 26, 1790: James and Molly Wyatt of Spartanburg Dist., to Vincent Wyatt of same; 360 acres on Peter's Creek; grant to William Wofford in 1786. Wit: Robert Armour, Mason Cannon and James Wyatt. (On the court record date for this deed, Sep. 21, 1790, James Wyatt also witnessed deeds to Vincent Wyatt from Jesse Connell and Lacy McAbee with Mason Cannon.

Jan. 14, 1791: James Wyatt, George Lamkin Sr. and John Cannon witness deed from Ellis Cannon to Daniel Walker on Peter's Creek.

June 29, 1818: Vincent Wyatt and wife Elizabeth sold to James Wyatt 128 acres on Peter's Creek of the Pacolate River. Witnessed by Jesse Cannon and James Cannon. (Spartanburg Co. deeds)

Sep. 7, 1818: James Wyatt and James Cannon witness oath to Thomas Poole for deed between Peter Best and Vincent Wyatt. (Spartanburg Co. deeds)

Using Spartanburg District heads of household in the 1800 US census as a list of possible fathers, we can eliminate most of the Wyatts.

Wyatts in Spartanburg Co., 1800 census:

Vincent Wyatt (POSSIBLE, b. bef.1755)
Edward/Edmund Wyatt (POSSIBLE, b. bef.1755)
Leonard Wyatt (ELIMINATED; too young, b.1755-1774)
Zachariah Wyatt (ELIMINATED; too young)
Abraham Wyatt (ELIMINATED; dau. Nancy b. 1790s; moved to TN)
Isham Wyatt (ELIMINATED; too young)
Thomas Wyatt (ELIMINATED; too young, b. 1755-1774)

And just to be thorough, Lincoln Co., NC, 1800 census:

Possible fathers of Nancy Wyatt

James Wyatt Jr. (1752-aft.1818) son of James Wyatt Sr. of Lincoln Co., NC. Moved to SC 1784-1788. Appears in numerous records with Vincent Wyatt and the Cannons, and seems likely to be a brother of Vincent, given the repeated transactions and the fact that they were next door neighbors.

Edward or Edmund Wyatt (bef.1755-aft.1820) He did not live near the Cannons, did not interact with them in deeds. He may be the father of the handful of Wyatts who married in Lincoln Co., NC in the 1780s and 1790s.

Vincent Wyatt (c.1754-1838) first bought land in Tryon Co., NC in Jan. 1777. Seems to have remained close to James Wyatt Jr. for decades and moved to SC with him in 1790. Note: this man is NOT the Vincent Wyatt who married E. Simpson in Halifax Co., VA in 1787; that Vincent was over a decade younger and still in VA while Vincent of NC was in Tryon Co. as early as 1777. In 1830 US census Vincent of Spartanburg District, SC was age 70-79 (b.1750-60) and the 1800 census says he was b. bef.1755. So it's clear he was born in the early 1750s. He is likely a son of James Wyatt Sr., particularly considering his closeness to James Wyatt Jr.

Vincent Wyatt is the best fit for Nancy Wyatt's father for a few reasons:

1. With the elimination of Abraham Wyatt, Vincent is the only remaining Wyatt that shows a direct connection with Lewis Cannon in records.

2. Vincent had a son named Zachariah Wyatt, named for Vincent's likely father-in-law, Zachariah Spencer (1732-1789). Lewis and Nancy Cannon's second son was named Zachariah in 1800.

3. Vincent's daughter Charity Wyatt married James Cannon, first cousin of Lewis. Elijah Cannon (1797-1889), son of Lewis and Nancy, named a daughter Charity as well. The name is quite rare in 19th century South Carolina but had been handed down in the Spencer family since 1712. So between the names Zachariah and Charity we have two clear inheritances from the Spencer family of Maryland via Vincent Wyatt.

4. Vincent is the perfect age to be father of Nancy Wyatt (assuming her birth ocurred around 1775-1780). Vincent had three daughters by 1790 and five daughters by 1800 still at home, three of which were born after 1790. This leaves an unidentified early daughter who had married and left home prior to 1800; Nancy Wyatt is a perfect fit, given her first child was born in 1797.

5. The name Nancy appears among Vincent's grandchildren as well as among Lewis Cannon's children and grandchildren.

6. An inherited family narrative among the descendants of Nahum Cannon claims that Nahum and his wife Cynthia Wyatt (her maiden name confirmed by the death certificate of one of her daughters) were first cousins and that he followed her family out to Arkansas as a teenager in 1830 intending to marry her. Cynthia's parents are believed to be William and Judith Wyatt of Jefferson, Arkansas, William being a documented son of Vincent Wyatt Sr.

7. I have a 15 cM match w/ BM, great great grandchild of Spencer Wyatt (1793-1853), son of Vincent Wyatt (1754-1838); with BM I also have a triangulated match with PC, (also a descendant of Spencer Wyatt) and Kathryn Hunt (also a Spencer Wyatt descendant).

==========

Nancy Cannon cannot be daughter of John Wyatt of Halifax Co., VA. His daughter Nancy was named Williams in his will of 1801.

John's Will in Halifax County, VA., drawn 24 Feb. 1801, proved 22 Feb. 1808. His Will names the following children:

1. Vincent Wyatt (1766-1832) who md. 23 Feb. 1787, to Elizabeth Simpson
2. James Wyatt, md. 1790, Milley Compton
3. Nancy Wyatt, md. a Mr. Williams
4. Lettice Wyatt, md. 1788, David Hamrick
5. Salley Wyatt md. a Mr. Lovell
6. Molly Wyatt, md. William Cooksey (Halifax Co. VA)
7. Eliel Wyatt married 30 Aug. 1803, to Martha Compton

DNA evidence

15 cM w/ BM, great great grandchild of Spencer Wyatt (1793-1853), son of Vincent Wyatt (1754-1838); with BM I also have a triangulated match with PC, (also a descendant of Spencer Wyatt) and Kathryn Hunt (also a Spencer Wyatt descendant).

Y-DNA evidence shows John Wyatt (1772-1869), said by descendants to be from Buncombe County, North Carolina (derived from Tryon County), son of a James Wyatt, is haplogroup R-M269, the same as a descendant of Sir Thomas Wyatt, suggesting that James Wyatt is related to the Haute Wyatt family of Virginia. This suggests the Wyatts of Spartanburg descend from the Wyatts of Gloucester Co., VA.

Nancy married Lewis Cannon, son of Rev. Ellis Cannon and Elizabeth Coleman, about 1796 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina. Lewis was born on March 6, 1775 in Culpeper County, Virginia, died before December 20, 1852 in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and was buried in Cannon's Campground United Methodist Church Cemetery, Spartanburg, SC.

Birth, marriages and children of Lewis Cannon

The Quarterly of the Piedmont Historical Society (Vol. IX, No. 4, Oct. 1995) has a transcript of Lewis Cannon's family bible, which shows his date of birth to be March 6, 1775. It lists the name of his wife as Elizabeth Cannon and gives her date of birth as Oct. 16, 1778 (this is incorrect; her father Aaron Templeman's family bible gives it as Oct. 17, 1789). It also gives all of his childrens' birth dates. No marriages or deaths were recorded.

Lewis's estate entered probate court on December 20, 1852 in Spartanburg Dist., SC.

The journal noted "his first wife is reported to be Nancy Wyatt" but gives no further information on her.

CANNONS COMMUNITY SETTLED

In 1972 Mr. Bobby Gilmer Moss published a book entitled "The Old Iron District", a study of the development of Cherokee County, 1775-1897. In this book, bottom of page 126, is the following: "Ellis Cannon and the Reverend Charles Smith migrated from Virginia about 1770 and settled on land extending from the present site of Cowpens to the Pacolet Biver."

After settling in South Carolina, Ellis Cannon returned to his former home in Culpeper, Virginia and persuaded his father, John Cannon, with his family, and several of his brothers to come with him to South Carolina.

Before leaving Culpeper County, Ellis went to the Court House and sold several hundred acres of land for his father, John Cannon, which had come to his wife, Sarah Hammitt Broderick, from her father, William Hammitt. Sarah Hammitt, as a young girl, had married Christopher Broderick. They had one daughter, Mary Broderick. Christopher Broderick died within the first year of his marriage. The following year Sarah married John Cannon. We do not know what happened to the daughter.

Ellis Cannon's wife was Elizabeth Coleman. He pronounced it Ailsabeth. Several of Ellis Cannon's children were born in Culpeper, Virginia. They had many children, although a complete list is not available. Phebe, born in 1772 who never married; Winnie, who married John Vandiver; Henry Cannon, born August 11, 1773 married Hannah Bowen and migrated eventually to Rabun County, Georgia; John Cannon, born October, 1769, married Martha Moore; Lewis Cannon was twice married. His last wife was Elizabeth Templeman; William Cannon (wife's name, Lucy); and Jesse Cannon (wife's name, Patsey).

54 M ii. Zachariah Wyatt was born about 1780 in Lincoln County, North Carolina and died about 1846 in Henry County, Tennessee.

1800 US census: Zach. Wyatt, age 16-25 (b.1775-1784) (Spartanburg Co. SC)

1820 US census: Z. Wyatt, age 26-44 (b.1775-1794) (Stewart Co. TN)
1830 US census: "Zachariah Wright" in his 50s (b.1770s) (Henry Co. TN)
1840 US census: Zachariah Wyatt in his 60s (b.1770s) (Henry Co. TN)

So he was born between 1775 and 1780.

1810 US census gives William's birth as 1765-1784. He had a wife and three children under age 10. This suggests he married c.1804 and was born c.1780-84.

Jan.1, 1813: Vincent Wyatt Sr. to William Wyatt, his son, for good will and affection, deed of gift of 128 acres. Elizabeth Wyatt signed; Spencer Wyatt witnessed.

Another researcher says William Wyatt died in Jefferson, AR. He appears there in the 1850 US census, age 68, b. NC.

16 Jan 1823: Spartanburg County, South Carolina; Vincent Wyatt to daughter, Charity Cannon, and her husband, James Cannon, a certain tract of land containing 212 acres.

Death notice says Charity Cannon, widow of James Cannon died [recently], age 95 years. (Carolina Spartan, Aug. 17, 1881)
Census records indicate she was born in 1790 or 1791 (1860, 1870). The 1880 census says she was born in 1787.

Said to have had children named John, James, Nancy, Vincent, Jesse, Elizabeth, Judith and Martha Cannon. https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/person/tree/18944413/person/19617211923/facts

Charity married James Cannon, son of Jesse Cannon.

There was a Vincent Cannon from Spartanburg District who served in the Civil War. He seems to be the "Vintson Cannon" (Mar. 7, 1827 - June 10, 1879) who died in Scott County, MO.

Genealogists have placed him as a son of James Cannon.

60 M viii. Spencer Wyatt was born about 1793 in Spartanburg District, South Carolina and died after 1850 of Crittenden County, Kentucky.

In the 1820 US census of Spartanburg Dist., SC, Spencer Wyatt is said to be b.1775-1794.

In the 1840 US census of Stewart Co., TN, Spencer Wyatt is said to be age 40-49.

The 1790 US census shows his father had four sons; only three are known by name. Assuming Spencer is one of them, he had to be born about 1790.

Said to have had children named Sarah, William Spencer, Harriet Elizabeth, Nancy M., Jane, Tabitha, Rody, and Marion Vincent Wyatt.

61 F ix. Sarah Wyatt was born about 1795 in Lincoln County, North Carolina and died after 1838 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Sarah married Smith.

Vincent next married Mary Ann before April 1, 1833. Mary died after January 15, 1838.

25. Thomas Wyatt (James[3], Edmund[2], Edmund[1]) was born about 1762 in Tryon County, North Carolina and died after February 24, 1825 of Spartanburg District, South Carolina.

Parents

Thomas Wyatt was enumerated in the 26-45 category in three census years (1800, 1810, 1820) which places his birth right at 1775. Evidently this is wrong though, because he received a grant in 1784, placing his birth at 1763 or earlier.

Thomas's father is unknown; he appears in records with Daniel, John, James and William Wyatt, who seem to descend from both Daniel and James Wyatt Sr. He is probably not a son of Edmund, but could be a son of either Daniel Sr. or James Sr. After 1810 he was an adjoining neighbor of Vincent Wyatt and James Wyatt, suggesting the three of them may be brothers. Thomas also received his South Carolina land grant in 1784, the same year as James Wyatt Sr.

This Edward also had a son named Moses, so it would fit with the old testament theme of his name.
